5:10 P.M. (10 min.)	YCCO Council(s)	PLC (Parent Leadership Council) QCAP (Quality & Clinical Advisory Council) Presentation details: QCAP (Quality & Clinical Advisory Council) is a meeting focused on quality oversight, with representation from various clinics and behavioral health providers. Interested CAC members can join and participate in discussions about quality strategies and community health improvement plans. The QCAP's charter holds two (2) slots for CAC members to bring the community and member perspective to the conversation. PLC (Parent Leadership Council) Presentation details: Parent Leadership Council (PLC), a group of parents from Yamhill County who advise the Early Learning Council on challenges and priorities for families. The PLC is looking for an additional 2 to 3 members and offers opportunities for professional development and community building events.	Shaelyn Wippert Tyler Hartman
5:20 P.M. (20 min.)	CAC Survey & 2025	CAC Survey Results CAC Member Orientation 101 Development Calendar CAC Planning Meeting Results from a survey about preferred engagement methods and information dissemination, indicating that most members prefer in-person meetings and email summaries. The conversation ended with a discussion on how to better respond to the survey results. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Send a link out to CAC where the minutes are posted after the meetings • Include the packets in calendar invites A “Welcome to the CAC” video is in final development in response to request for clarity around roles and expectations for new CAC members. The group discussed ways to improve the organization and communication within the group. A buddy system to facilitate relationships, starting each meeting with open Q&A are some ideas from the group. The group also discussed the possibility of increasing the number of	Shanna Moon Beto Reyes

5:20 P.M. (20 min.)	CAC Survey & 2025	members in the group and the potential for multiple groups or subgroups. YCCO emphasized the importance of being responsive to immediate needs and the group's ability to influence their scope of influence. They also discussed the need for community education and the group's responsibility to provide feedback on funding. The conversation ended with plans to discuss these topics further in future meetings. Other ideas that came from the discussion are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a parking lot during meeting • having a mentorship model • socialization opportunities • community building opportunities together • an annual retreat • revisiting the CAC charter annually Annual calendar of topics and updates for the CAC meetings were discussed, and portions of these updates may be recorded and used in a future video for the CAC. Some of the planned updates are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Government Affairs and CEO will attend the CAC two times a year for legislative and organization updates. • Staff has engaged with YCCO departments to attend future CAC meetings to give overviews of their work and how the CAC can engage.
