

Yamhill Community Care would like to share the following information as provided by the Oregon Health Authority:

Oregon COVID-19 Response for Clinicians ECHO

Join the Oregon ECHO Network, the Oregon Health Authority, and County Public Health Officials starting today Thursday, March 19, at noon for weekly interactive virtual sessions on the COVID-19 virus and the Oregon healthcare community response.

The sessions will provide the latest information on best practices in clinical management, clinical practice safety, testing, and the community public health response. A specialist panel, including public health experts, clinicians, and epidemiologists, share up-to-date knowledge and answer questions. There will also be an opportunity for Oregon clinicians to present their own COVID-19 cases for discussion and recommendations. Sessions will take place on Thursdays, starting today March 19, noon-1:30 p.m.

Thursday, March 19, noon-1:30 p.m.

Faculty:

- Dana Hargunani, MD, MPH, Chief Medical Officer, Oregon Health Authority
- Jennifer Vines, MD, MPH, Health Officer, Multnomah County Health Department

Participation takes place in a virtual meeting space — join from your own computer or cellphone. All Oregon clinicians are encouraged to register.
